20 Case No. 2:21-cv-01112-TL

CONSENT JUDGMENT AND PERMANENT INJUNCTION

21 Based upon the Parties’ Stipulation dated June 9, 2022, the Court finds, and orders that 22 judgment is entered against Defendant Robert James Duthie Nelson, Elite Boss Tech, Inc., and 23 11020781 Canada Inc. (“Defendants”) as follows:

24 1. Defendants’ software referenced in the Complaint includes a software module that 25 is designed to be used with Destiny 2 (“the Destiny 2 Software Module”) that displays a

1 graphical overlay that integrates into and annotates Plaintiff's copyrighted Destiny 2 audiovisual
2 work, and thereby infringes as an unauthorized derivative work.

3 2. Defendants' software with the Destiny 2 Software Module operates by injecting
4 code into Plaintiff's copyrighted Destiny 2 code, with the combined code working in concert to 5 enable and provide the "hacks" marketed by Defendants, and thereby infringes as an
6 unauthorized derivative work.

7 3. Defendants' infringement was willful.

8 4. In addition, Defendants' software with the Destiny 2 Software Module operates to 9 circumvent technological measures Plaintiff employs to control and limit access to its software,
10 including by aimbot smoothing and accessing data Plaintiff otherwise denies users access to, in 11 violation of 17 U.S.C. § 1201(a) and (b).

12 5. The Destiny 2 Software Module has been downloaded 6,765 times, and each such 13 download constitutes an independent provision of a circumvention device in violation of 17
14 U.S.C. § 1201(a) and (b).

15 6. Judgment is hereby entered against Defendant in the amount of $13,530,000.00,
16 representing statutory damages of $2,000 per violation of 17 U.S.C. § 1201.

17 7. Any claims alleged in the Complaint and not addressed herein are withdrawn by 18 Plaintiff.

19 In addition, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. §§ 502, 504, 505, 506, and 1201, and this Court's
20 inherent equitable powers, the Court orders as follows:

21 8. Defendants, all persons acting under Defendants' direction or control (including 22 but not limited to Defendants' agents, representatives, and employees), and those persons or 23 companies in active concert or participation with Defendants who receive actual notice of this 24 Order by personal service or otherwise, must immediately and permanently cease and desist from 25 any of the following:

26

- a. Taking any steps on Defendants' own behalf or assisting others in creating, distributing, advertising, marketing or otherwise making available; obtaining, possessing, accessing or using; promoting, advertising, or encouraging or inducing others to purchase or use (including via any social media account, website, or video-sharing account); selling, reselling, or processing payments for; assisting in any way with the development of; sharing, copying, transferring, or distributing; publishing or distributing any source code or instructional material for the creation of; or operating, assisting, promoting or linking to any website designed to provide information to assist others in accessing, developing or obtaining: (i) the Destiny 2 Software Module, either alone, or in conjunction with the Defendants' Software; or (ii) any software whose use infringes Intellectual Property owned or controlled by Plaintiff or its parents, subsidiaries, or affiliates (collectively, "Plaintiff"), circumvents technological measures that effectively control access to Plaintiff's games, violates Plaintiff's licensing agreements, assists players of Plaintiff's games in violating Plaintiff's licensing agreements, or is designed to exploit or enable the exploitation of any game owned, published, distributed or operated by Plaintiff.
 - b. Investing or holding any financial interest in any enterprise, product, or company which Defendant knows or has reason to know is now, or intends in the future to be, engaged in any of the foregoing activities prohibited by this Judgment and Permanent Injunction.
 - c. Reverse engineering, decompiling, packet editing, or otherwise manipulating without authorization, any game owned, published, or operated by Plaintiff, or providing any assistance to any person or entity engaged in such activities.

1 9. The Court further enjoins Defendants and all third parties acting in concert and
2 participation with Defendants, including but not limited to any domain name registrars or 3 registries holding or listing any of Defendants' websites or storefronts, from supporting or
4 facilitating access to any and all domain names, URLs, and websites (including, but not limited
5 to, insert sites), including any and all future and successor domain names, URLs, and websites,
6 through which Defendants traffic in circumvention devices that threaten Plaintiff's technological
7 protection measures or which infringe Plaintiff's Intellectual Property rights.

8 10. Defendants are prohibited from using any social network, video sharing, or digital
9 messaging accounts under their control (including, but not limited to, Facebook, groups or chats
10 on Facebook, YouTube, Twitter, Tik Tok, Discord, GBATemp, Reddit, Telegram, Skype, 11 WeChat, WhatsApp, Signal, or their equivalent) to provide any content relating to the 12 distribution, marketing, offering for sale, or promotion of the Defendants' Software or any other
13 software whose use infringes any of Plaintiff's Intellectual Property Rights, circumvents
14 Plaintiff's technological measures that effectively control access to Plaintiff's games, or violates
15 (or assists players of Plaintiff's games in violating) Plaintiff's license agreements, and must take 16 all necessary steps to remove any information on any non-dedicated (e.g., personal) social
17 network accounts under Defendants' control used to distribute or promote any of the foregoing.

18 11. Defendants are further prohibited from engaging in any other violation of the 19 Digital Millennium Copyright Act or the Copyright Act, or any other federal or state law, with 20 respect to Plaintiff and its intellectual property.

21 12. Defendants must destroy the Destiny 2 Software Module or any software that in 22 any way interacts with or pertains to Plaintiffs' Intellectual Property.

23 13. This permanent injunction constitutes a binding court order, and any violations of 24 this order by Defendants will subject them to the full scope of this Court's contempt authority,
25 including punitive, coercive, and monetary sanctions.

26

1 14. Any company or entity that any of Defendants control in the future will also
2 comply with the provisions of this Judgment and Permanent Injunction.

3 15. This permanent injunction is binding against Defendants worldwide, without
4 regard to the territorial scope of the specific intellectual property rights asserted in the Complaint
5 and may be enforced in any court of competent jurisdiction wherever Defendants or their assets
6 may be found.

7 16. The Parties irrevocably and fully waive notice of entry of this Judgment and 8 Permanent Injunction and notice and service of the entered Judgment and Permanent Injunction.
9 Plaintiff is not required to post any bond or security in connection with the Final Judgment and
10 Permanent Injunction, and Defendants have permanently, irrevocably, and fully waived any right
11 to request a bond or security.

12 17. The Parties irrevocably and fully waive all rights to appeal this Judgment and 13 Permanent Injunction, to have it vacated or set aside, to seek or obtain a new trial thereon or 14 otherwise to attack in any way, directly or collaterally, its validity or enforceability.

15 18. Nothing contained in this Judgment and Permanent Injunction limits the right of 16 the Plaintiff to seek relief, including without limitation damages, for any infringements of any 17 Intellectual Property rights occurring after the date of this Judgment and Permanent Injunction.

18 19. While the Court will administratively close the case, the Court will retain 19 jurisdiction of this action to entertain further proceedings and to enter further orders as may be 20 necessary or appropriate to implement and enforce the provisions of this Judgment and 21 Permanent Injunction. The Parties consent to the personal jurisdiction of the United States
22 District Court for the Western District of Washington for purposes of enforcing the Judgment
23 and Permanent Injunction.

24 20. The Court finds there is no just reason for delay in entering this Judgment and 25 Permanent Injunction and, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54, the Court directs
26 immediate entry of this Judgment and Permanent Injunction against Defendants.
